

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION.

PAGE

GENERAL DESCRIPTION (page 1)—Shape and boundaries—Taluku and chief towns (2)—Etymology of name—Natural divisions. HILLS (3)—Sandur hills—Copper Mountain hills—Mallappangudda range—Kallahalligudda hills—Kúdligi hills (4)—Gudékéta hills—Alúr hills—Ádóni hills—Detached groups and peaks—Scenery (5). RIVERS (6)—The Tungabhadra—Its name—Its mythological origin—Its rate of fall—Its banks and bed (7)—Its islands—Tributaries of the Tungabhadra (8)—The Hagari—The Chikka Hagari (9)—Minor streams—Level of the district. SOILS (10)—Black cotton-soil—Red and mixed soils (11). CLIMATE—Rainfall—Temperature—Humidity (13)—Winds. GEOLOGY—Archæan rocks—The four Dharwar bands—Chief hills of the Archæan system (14)—The Kallahalligudda Dharwar band (15)—Hematite quartzite—Quartz veins—The Mallappangudda Dharwar band—More hematites—Gold-washing—Signs of diamonds (16)—Sandur-Copper Mountain twin band—Hematites plentiful and rich—Native iron-smelting—Manganese ore (17)—Gold—Pennér-Hagari Dharwar band—Quartz runs and trap-dykes—Copper (18)—Building stones (19)—Jasper rocks—Potstone or steatite (20)—Limestones—Mineral pigments. FLORA (21). FAUNA—Domestic animals, Cattle—Buffaloes (22)—Sheep—Goats—Game	1-23
--	------

CHAPTER II.

POLITICAL HISTORY.

PREHISTORIC PEOPLES (page 24)—Their settlements and implements (25)—Legendary history (26). EARLY HISTORY—Asóka, 258 B.C.—The Andhras, 2nd century A.D. (27)—The Kadambas, 4th century—The Chálukyas, 6th century—The Ráshtrakútas, 7th to 10th centuries (28)—The Gangas, 10th century—The Western Chálukyas, 11th century (29)—The Chólas (30)—The Kalachuryas, Hoysala Ballálas and Yádavas, 12th century—The Muhammadan advance, A.D. 1310 (31). VIJAYANAGAR KINGS—Foundation of Vijayanagar, 1335—Harihara I, 1335-1343 (32)—Bukka I, 1343-1379—His war with the Báhmini kings Muhammad Shah and Mujáhid Shah—Harihara II, 1379-1399 (34)—Bukka II, 1399-1406—Deva Ráya I, 1406-1412 (35)—The Mudkal beauty—Vira-Vijaya, 1412-1419—Deva Ráya II, 1419-1444—He narrowly escapes assassination (36)—Foreign visitors to Vijayanagar (37)—Downfall of the first Vijayanagar dynasty, 1449-1490—Disruption of the Báhmini kingdom—First kings of the second Vijayanagar dynasty, 1490-1509 (38)—Krishna Deva, 1509-1530; his personality—His buildings—His administrative improvements—His patronage of literature (39)—His expeditions to Mysore and the east coast—His capture of Raichúr and the Doáb—His haughty treatment of the Musalmans (40)—Achyuta Ráya, 1530-1542; a weak ruler—The Bijápur king visits

	PAGE
Vijayanagar—The three brothers (41)—Sadásiva nominally king, 1542–1567—Ráma Rája's dealings with the Musalmans—Musalman irritation against the Hindus—The Musalmans combine against Vijayanagar (42)—The battle of Talikóta, 1565—Flight of Vijayanagar king and sack of his capital (43)—The end of the Vijayanagar Empire (44). MUHAMMADAN PERIOD—The poligars become powerful—The Maráthas, 1678—The Emperor Aurangzeb, 1687 (45)—The Nizam-ul-Mulk, 1723—Haidar Ali, 1761—Tipu Sultan, 1786—The second Mysore war, 1792 (46)—The third Mysore war, 1799—Bellary ceded to the English. ENGLISH RULE—Munro appointed Principal Collector—The poligars (47)—Their turbulence under native rule—Munro's policy regarding them (48)—The affair of "Ternikull" (49)—Alarms of rebellions (50)—The Pindári raid of 1818—Bhíma Rao's rising in 1858	24-51

CHAPTER III.

THE PEOPLE.

GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS (page 52)—Density of population—Its growth—Deficiency of females (53)—Parent-tongue—Education—Occupations—Religions. THE JAINS (54). THE CHRISTIANS—Roman Catholic Mission—The London Mission (56). THE MUSALMANS (57)—Dúdékulas. THE HINDUS—Villages and houses—Dress (58)—Tattooing (59)—Food—Amusements—Superstitions (60). RELIGIOUS LIFE (61)—Bráhmans not plentiful (62)—Nor powerful—Lingáyats numerous and influential (63)—Large temples scarce—Lesser deities chiefly revered—Tree-worship (64)—Snake-worship—Vows to temples. SOCIAL LIFE—Marriage rites— Udike marriage (65)—Other marriage customs (66)—Pancháyats—Adoption—Basavis. PRINCIPAL CASTES (68)—Lingáyats—Bóyas or Bédars (70)—Kurubas (71)—Mádigas (72)—Málas or Holeyas (73)—Kabbéras (74)—Lambádis—Korachas (76)—Other large castes (77)	52-77
--	-------

CHAPTER IV.

AGRICULTURE AND IRRIGATION.

AGRICULTURAL PRACTICE (page 78). WET CULTIVATION—Paddy—Sugarcane (79). DRY CULTIVATION— Mungári and hingári crops (80)—Implements and methods (81)—The guntaka or scuffle—Manuring—The gorru or drill (82)—Mixing of crops (83)—Weeding—The pedda madaka or big plough—Iron ploughs (84)—Harvesting—Crops principally grown (85)—Varieties and improvement of cotton (86). IRRIGATION (87)—Protected area small—Wells (88)—Tanks—Channels (89)—Spring channels—Anicut channels (90)—Tungabhadra channels—Projects under investigation (93)—Nelikudiri project—Tungabhadra—Pennér project. ECONOMIC CONDITION OF AGRICULTURISTS (94)	78-97
--	-------

CHAPTER V.

FORESTS.

Conservancy dates from 1882 (page 98)—Characteristics of the forests—Their situation (99)—Their varying nature—The Sandur leased forests (100)—Kuppigallu experimental station (101)	98-101
--	--------

CHAPTER VI.

OCCUPATIONS AND TRADE.

PAGE

OCCUPATIONS (page 102)—Agriculture and pasture—Other usual callings. ARTS AND INDUSTRIES (103)—Gunny-weaving—Cotton-weaving; coarse white cloths—Adóni carpets—Women's cloths—Cotton-dyeing (104)—Silk-weaving—Silk-dyeing (105)—Condition of the silk and cotton weavers (106)—Blanket-weaving (107)—Cotton-cleaning (108)—Cotton-pressing (109)—Cotton-spinning (110)—Jaggery-making—Oils (111)—Tanning—Iron-smelting—Salt and saltpetre (112)—Bangle-making—Brass-work—Potstone articles—Wooden toys—Mats, tatties, etc.—Wood-carving. TRADE—Exports (113)—Imports—Markets. WEIGHTS AND MEASURES—Tables of weight (114)—Grain measures—Liquid measures (115)—Lineal measures—Measures of time 102-115

CHAPTER VII.

MEANS OF COMMUNICATION.

ROADS (page 116)—Their condition in 1852—Extension during famines (117)—Present condition—Rivers unbridged (118)—Avenues scarce—The chief metalled roads—Travellers' bungalows and choultries. FERRIES—Basket-boats. RAILWAYS (119)—The Madras Railway—The Southern Mahratta Railway (120)—Lines under construction 116-120

CHAPTER VIII.

RAINFALL AND SEASONS.

RAINFALL (page 121)—Liability to famine (123). EARLY SCARCITIES—Before the cession—Scarcity of 1802-04—Scarcity of 1805-07 (124)—Bad season in 1824. FAMINE OF 1833. FAMINE OF 1854 (125)—Numbers relieved—Works undertaken (126)—Cost to the State. FAMINE OF 1866—Events preceding it—Beginnings of distress (127)—Works at length opened—A dearth of food (128)—Rain in August—The relief-works carried out—Cost of the famine (129). THE GREAT FAMINE OF 1876-78—Its severity in Bellary—The beginnings of trouble (130)—September 1876; sudden expansion of distress—October; sudden rise in prices (131)—November; great lack of food—December; famine inevitable—Steps taken and proposed (132)—Deputation of Sir Richard Temple—Some of his suggestions (133)—The action taken—Increasing intensity of the famine (134)—June 1877; the monsoon again fails (135)—July; difficulties further increase—August; the climax reached—September; rain falls (136)—End of the distress—Cost of the famine. SCARCITY OF 1884-85 (137). FAMINE OF 1891-92—Cattle mortality heavy (138)—Cost to the State. FAMINE OF 1896-97 (139)—Numbers relieved and prices—Mortality among cattle (140)—Private charity and loans by Government—Cost to the State. SCARCITY OF 1900 (141). SUMMARY. FLOODS; the disaster of 1804—Storm of 1817 (142)—The Tungabhadra in flood, 1825—Great storm of 1851—Inundation from the Tungabhadra, 1882 (143). EARTHQUAKE OF 1843 121-143

CHAPTER IX.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

	PAGE
GENERAL HEALTH (page 144)—Malaria—Cholera—Small-pox—Plague (145) —Ophthalmia—Guinea-worm. VITAL STATISTICS—Vaccination (146)— Sanitation. MEDICAL INSTITUTIONS—In Bellary town—Elsewhere—Gosha Hospitals 144-146	144-146

CHAPTER X.

EDUCATION.

CENSUS STATISTICS (page 147)—Education rare—The languages best known— Education by religions—Education by taluks. EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS —The Wardlaw College—Upper Secondary schools (148)—Lower Second- ary schools—Schools for girls—Other schools 147-148	147-148
---	---------

CHAPTER XI.

LAND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION.

REVENUE HISTORY: Inseparable from that of the other Ceded districts (page 149)—Native revenue systems (150)—Under Vijayanagar—Under Bijápur —Under Aurangzeb (151)—Under the Maráthas—Under Haidar Ali— Under Tipu Sultan (152)—Under the Nizam—In the Ádóni Jaghir— Misgovernment there (153)—Munro's estimate of the possible revenue— The standard expected—Turbulence of the country—The village settle- ment of 1800-01 (154)—Ryotwari settlement of 1801-02 (155)—Munro's survey and settlement—His money rates (156)—Method of fixing assess- ment—Ryotwari settlements from 1802-03 to 1808-09 (157)—Other revenue in those days (158)—Other revenue practices—Triennial leases proposed—Munro's views upon them (159)—He proposes reductions in his assessment (160)—Triennial lease resolved upon—Munro goes Home, 1807 (161)—Ryots' affection for him—Result of triennial lease, 1809-11 —A decennial lease ordered (162)—The results, 1812-22—Reversion to a ryotwari settlement, 1818 (163)—Reductions in assessment ordered, 1820 (164)—But not fully carried out—Reductions and other changes, 1824 (165)—Slow progress of the district (166)—Further reductions, 1859 (167) —The district recovers, 1859-76 (169)—Effect of famine of 1876-78— Bellary district constituted, 1882. SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT OF 1896: Mr. Cox's scheme—Mr. Wilson's scheme (170)—Mr. Cox's revised scheme —Principles followed—The rates prescribed (171). INAMS: Their large extent (172)—Munro's policy regarding them (173)—Their nature—Enquiry regarding them—Restrictions on their cultivation (174)—The appanam system—The inam taffrik (175). VILLAGE ESTABLISHMENTS: Former emoluments and customs—Their revision. EXISTING DIVISIONAL CHARGES (176) 140-176	140-176
---	---------

CHAPTER XII.

SALT, ABKÁRI AND MISCELLANEOUS REVENUE.

SALT (page 177)—Former sources of supply—Earth-salt; method of manufac- ture—Its interference with monopoly salt—Its manufacture suppressed (178)—Present sources of salt supply (179)—Saltpetre. ABKÁRI—Arrack —Foreign liquor (180)—Toddy—Opium and hemp-drugs (181). CUSTOMS. INCOME-TAX (182). STAMPS 177-18	177-18
---	--------

CHAPTER XIII.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

	PAGE
CIVIL JUSTICE (page 183)—Village Munsifs' Courts—District Munsifs' Courts—The District Court—Rarity of litigation—Registration (184). CRIMINAL JUSTICE—The various Courts—Causes of crime—Criminal castes (185)—Grave crime (186). POLICE (187)—Previous systems—Present administration (189). JAILS (190)	183-190

CHAPTER XIV.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

THE LOCAL BOARDS (page 191)—The Unions—Receipts of the Boards—Chief items of expenditure (192). THE TWO MUNICIPALITIES—Bellary Municipality—Improvements effected by it (193)—Ádóni Municipality	191-193
---	---------

CHAPTER XV.

GAZETTEER.

ÁDÓNI TALUK (page 194)—Ádóni (195)—Basarakódu (201)—Chinnatumbalam—Guruzála (202)—Hálvi—Kautálam—Kosgi (203)—Mantsála (204)—Nágaldinne (205)—Peddatumbalam—Yemmiganúru (207). ALÚR TALUK (209)—Alúr—Chippigiri (210)—Gúliam (211)—Harivánam—Holalagondi (212)—Neraniki—Yellarti (213). BELLARY TALUK (214)—Bellary—Hiréhálu (224)—Kappagallu (225)—Kenchaguddam (226)—Kúdatini (227)—Kurugódu (231)—Siruguppa (234)—Tekka'akóta (235). HADAGALLI TALUK (237)—Belláhunisbi (239)—Dévagondanahalli—Hadagalli (240)—Hampáságararam (241)—Hiréhadagalli (242)—Holalu—Kógali—Mágalam (243)—Mailár—Mallappan Betta (245)—Modalukatti—Sógi (246)—Tambarahalli. HARPANAHALLI TALUK (247)—Bágali—Chigatéri (248)—Halavágalu (249)—Harivi—Harpanahalli—Kúlahalli (255)—Kuruvatti—Nílagunda—Uchchangidurgam—Yaraballi (256). HOSPET TALUK (257)—Anantasainagadi (258)—Daróji—Hampi (259)—Hospet (278)—Kámalápuram (281)—Kampli (282)—Náráyanadévarakeri (284)—Timmalápuram—Tóranagallu (285). KÚDLIGI TALUK (286)—Ambali (287)—Gudékóta (288)—Gunáságararam (289)—Jaramali—Kottúru (290)—Kúdligi (292)—Nimbalagiri (294)—Shidégallu—Sómalápuram—Ujjini—Víranadurgam. RAYADRUG TALUK (295)—Gollapalli—Honnúru (296)—Kanékallu (297)—Rayadrug	194-302
---	---------

CHAPTER XVI.

SANDUR STATE.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION (page 303)—The Narihalla river (304)—Óbalagandi gorge—Bhímagandi górgé (305)—General divisions of the hills—Roads (306)—Rainfall—Floods, famines, etc. (307)—The People—Agriculture (308)—Industries and trade (309). HISTORY. ADMINISTRATION (315)—Present system (316)—Land revenue—Inams (317)—Village establishment—Forests—Salt and Abkári (318)—Courts of Justice and police (319)—Education—Medical—Finance. PLACES OF INTEREST: Sandur town (320)—Kumárasvámi temple—Ramandrug (323)	303-325
---	---------